The Mammiyur Sri Mahadeva Temple (also known as Mammiyur Mahadeva Temple or Mammiyoor Temple) is an ancient and revered Shiva temple in Guruvayur, Kerala.

It is closely linked to the famous Guruvayur Sri Krishna Temple and is considered essential for devotees—many believe a visit to Guruvayur is incomplete without paying homage here, symbolizing the harmony between Lord Shiva and Lord Vishnu (Krishna).

Location and Address

The temple is located in Mammiyur, Guruvayur, Thrissur district, Kerala, India.

It is just a short walk (about 200-500 meters northwest) from the famous Guruvayur Sree Krishna Temple.

Full address: Mammiyur Devaswom, Guruvayur P.O., Perumpilavil Road, Guruvayur - 680 101, Thrissur, Kerala, South India.
Phone
+91 487 2555425 (also listed as contact for fax and inquiries; email: mammiyurdevaswom@gmail.com or similar from official sources).

How to Get There

By Air: Nearest airport is Cochin International Airport (COK), about 80-90 km away (around 2 hours by road).

By Train: Guruvayur Railway Station is about 1-2 km away (short auto-rickshaw or walk). Major rail connections via Thrissur (about 30 km).

By Road: Well-connected by buses from Thrissur (about 30 km), Kochi (about 90 km), and other parts of Kerala. Auto-rickshaws, taxis, or local buses are easy from Guruvayur town center. The temple is very close to Guruvayur Temple, so most visitors combine both.

Greatness of This Temple

It is one of the 108 ancient Shiva temples (Parasurama Kshetrams) in Kerala, and one of five prominent Shiva temples around Guruvayur (others include Chowallur, Perunthatta, Perakam, and Parambanthali).

It symbolizes Lord Shiva's greatness ("Mahima") in voluntarily giving up his penance site for the installation of Lord Krishna's idol at Guruvayur, earning the name "Mammiyur" (from "Mahimayur," meaning place of glory).

It represents harmony between Shaivism and Vaishnavism, with both Shiva and Vishnu worshipped prominently. Devotees consider it a powerful site for blessings, especially for family unity and spiritual completion of Guruvayur pilgrimage.

Legends and History

The legend ties to the end of Dwapara Yuga after Dwaraka submerged. Lord Krishna entrusted his idol to Brihaspati (Guru) and Vayu to install it at a sacred spot. They found Lord Shiva in penance by Rudratheertha Lake. Shiva graciously relocated to allow the installation, naming the Krishna site "Guruvayur" (Guru + Vayu).

His new site became "Mahimayur" (later Mammiyur) in honor of his sacrifice. This highlights Shiva's benevolence and the interconnectedness of the two temples.

Architecture of Temple, Deities

The temple follows traditional Kerala-style architecture, with intricate wood carvings, a grand sanctum sanctorum, and typical temple towers (gopurams).

The main deity is Lord Shiva in the form of Uma Maheshwara (Shiva with Goddess Parvati seated on his left lap/thigh, symbolizing marital harmony).

A separate shrine for Lord Vishnu (Mahavishnu) is prominent, making it unique for both Shaiva and Vaishnava worship.

Sub-deities: Include Lord Ganapathi (Ganesha), Lord Subrahmanya (Murugan), Lord Ayyappan (Sastha), Goddess Bhadrakali (or Durga/Bhagavati), Serpent deities (Nagaraja), Brahmarakshasa/Rakshass, and sometimes others like Naga gods.

Daily Rituals and Poojas and Their Charges

The temple opens early and follows traditional Kerala temple rituals, similar to Guruvayur.
Timings (approximate, subject to change):

Opens around 4:00-4:45 AM (conch blowing, Nirmalyam, oil abhishekam, etc.).
Morning poojas: Ganapathy Homam, Rigveda Dhara, Usha Pooja, etc. (around 5-8 AM).
Special homams/poojas: 10-11 AM (e.g., Maha Mrityunjaya Homa, Naga Pooja).

Closes around 12:30 PM; reopens 4:45-5 PM to 8-8:30 PM (evening poojas, Seeveli, Deeparadhana, Athazha Pooja).

Charges vary; common daily offerings include basic abhishekam or nivedyam (often nominal or donation-based).

For specific vazhipadu (offerings), check the official site or temple counter.

Special Poojas and Rituals and Their Charges

Special offerings (vazhipadu) can be booked online or at the temple (via https://booking.mammiyurmahadevatemple.com/).

Examples include:

One-day pooja with Chuttuvilakku: Around Rs. 9,000-15,000.

Prasada Oottu (feast/annadanam): Rs. 17,500-30,000 for one day.

Decoration: Rs. 25,000 for one day.

Other specials: Udayastamana Pooja, homams (e.g., Mrityunjaya, Naga Pooja).

Exact current charges best confirmed directly or via official booking portal, as they may vary.

Festivals

Major festivals include Maha Shivaratri (grand celebrations with special poojas) and Thiruvathira.
It also aligns with Guruvayur Ekadasi, Onam, and Vishu (with free feasts on certain days like Mondays, Thursdays, Sundays).

Facilities for Devotees (Accommodation, etc.)

The temple itself may not have extensive accommodation, but it offers facilities like free prasada oottu (feast) on festival/special days. Devotees often stay near Guruvayur Temple.

Nearby options include temple-managed or private stays.

Donation Info and Bank Account Number

Donations/support can be made via the temple's official website (mammiyurmahadevatemple.com) or booking portal. Specific bank details are not publicly listed in searches for security reasons—contact the temple directly (+91 487 2555425) or visit for donation receipts/options.

Nearby Temples

More info

The Mammiyur Sri Mahadeva Temple is steeped in antiquity, forming a spiritual "twin" to the Guruvayur Sree Krishna Temple. Here are the deeper legends and a detailed breakdown of the offerings.

The Sacred Legends

The "Mammi-yoor" (The Place of the Mother)

The most prominent legend involves Sage Parasurama. When he retrieved Kerala from the sea, he sought a place to install the idol of Lord Krishna (which had surfaced from the Great Flood).

* The Conflict of Space: The current site of Guruvayur was originally the abode of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvathi.
* The Divine Shift: When Guru (Jupiter) and Vayu (Wind) arrived with the Krishna idol, Lord Shiva graciously offered to move to a nearby location to accommodate the "Bhooloka Vaikunta" (Heaven on Earth).
* The Name: As Lord Shiva moved with his consort Parvathi, the spot became known as "Mahimayur" (The Place of Greatness) or "Mammi-yoor" (referring to the presence of the Mother, Parvathi).

The Compulsory Visit

It is divinely ordained that any devotee visiting Guruvayur Sree Krishna must also visit Mammiyur to complete their pilgrimage.

Legend says that Lord Krishna himself requested that his devotees first seek the blessings of Lord Shiva, the original "landlord" of the holy town.

Detailed Rituals & Offerings

The temple follows the strict Kerala Tantric style of worship. The offerings range from simple floral tributes to elaborate day-long rituals.
